

ARTtalk ARTwalk 2009

Get a close-up look at artists, their studios, and the creative process in these unique programs, designed for artists in the area as well as those interested in art. The 2 programs are offered on alternating months, so you can sign up for both!

ARTtalk

Six times a year artists have the opportunity to bring a work of art to the Museum, show it to other artists and those interested in art, and have friendly feedback about the work. Signing up for ARTtalk reserves you a space in all 6 meetings, with or without artwork.

Thursdays: 6 to 7:30 P.M. – in the Museum conference room

January 15

March 26

May 14

July 16

September 17

November 19

Cost: $20 (for all 6 sessions) for Museum or Art Guild members
$35 for non-members

ARTwalk

Visit 6 well-known artist's studios on different Tuesday evenings during 2009 and learn about their creative process and techniques. Then come to the Museum on Thursday evening of the same week to view a related art exhibition and work with the artist, in the Museum studios, to create your own work of art. This program is designed for artists AND for those with an interest in art.

Tuesdays and Thursdays: 6 to 7:30 P.M.

February 24, 26

April 21, 23

June 23, 25
